dian) meets on the first and third Wednesday evening of each month at their hall over E. H.
Manning's Store.

To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRAN-SCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Ferrisfield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office.
Copies of our weekly paper may also be ad at these places.

WE notice in the Post Office, a fine steel Engraving of Daniel Webster, which has been presented to Washington Engine Co. No. 1, by Mr. L. H.
Joff.

A FRESH STOCK.—A long advertisement of Mr. Charles Wyman awaits publication in the TRANSCRIPT. Suffice to say, that he has recently received large addition to his stock of watches, silver ware, plated goods, table cutlery, etc. Mr. Wyman has been in the same business in St. Albans for twenty-one years and has won an excellent reputation in this community for honorable and fair dealing.

FUNERAL OF GEN. NASON.—The Funeral of Gen. Nason took place this afternoon. The Masonic fraternity, of which deceased has long been a prominent member, proceeded in a body to the house at half past one o'clock, headed by the St. Albans Brigade Band, and escorted the funeral cortege to the Congregational Church.

Opening prayer was said by Rev. H.
C. Riggs who delivered a very appropriate address. The closing prayer was made by Rev. H. K. Cobb, Chaplain of Franklin Lodge, No. 4. After which the procession reformed and proceeded to the grave where the masonic portion of the services were conducted by W.
M., Park Davis in a very impressive manner. The services over at the grave the fraternity escorted the procession back to the residence of the lamented deceased.

OUR venerable cotemporary, the St.
Albans Messenger, says in the weekly issue of the 20th inst: "We have recently reduced the price (of the weekly) from $2.50 to $2.00, to all subscribers in the State." The price of the TRAN-SCRIPT (weekly) is $2.00 per annum in advance to all subscribers, in or out of the State.

LEBANON SPRINGS RAILROAD.—The first regular train over the Lebanon Springs Railroad, left Bennington for the Springs of Wednesday morning last.
It was a construction train, and will, until the road is opened for business, run regularly.

SHEEP.—We had the pleasure, yesterday, of examining a lot of eleven Cotswold Sheep, which had been purchased by Mr. A. D. Arms, of Montpelier Center, from the flock of an eminent sheep breeder in Connecticut. It is evident that the Cotswold is the coming breed of sheep, and much praise is due to Mr.
Arms, for the enterprise he has exhibied in procuring them. A visit to this flock will well repay any one interested in breeding sheep.—Montpelier Journal.

The Legislature.

Adjourned this morning, the Senate a few minutes after 3 o'clock and the House at twenty minutes past four o'clock. The bill extending the Bennington and Rutland Railroad to West Rutland passed the Senate, we understand, as it came from the House, all proposed amendments being voted down. This bill took up much time in the House and the discussion which it called forth tended to show that it ought to become a law as it has. We shall publish the final proceedings of the Legislature to-morrow, and the laws designed for publication by the Secretary of State.

THE DEBT IN FRANKLIN CO.—The following is a statement of the indebtedness of the towns in Franklin County, reported to the State Treasurer, on the 3d day of March last:

S. Surplus Fund,	$25,357 01
Other debts,	16,545 01
Total debt,	$41,902 02

Nearly two feet of snow fell in Quebec on the 18th inst.

ASCUTNEY HOTEL COMPANY.—A bill has passed both branches of the Legislature granting a charter for the "Ascuteney Hotel Company" at Windsor. The company will have a solid basis of from $30,000 to $51,000.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—The Rutland Independent says: Owing to the rapidly increasing number of Catholics in Rutland, it has been found necessary to divide the congregation. The Irish Catholics are building a new church for themselves on Mechanics Street, and a lot has been secured between Centre and East Rutland, upon which the erection of a new church will be commenced next spring, for the use of the French Canadians.

HISTORY OF GEORGIA.—Mr. Orville S. Biss has been engaged for some time on the history of Georgia for the Vermont Historical Gazetteer.

NEW DRESS.—The Hyde Park News-dealer gives notice that it will put on a "bran new dress" next week. Success to the Newsdealer, Brother Sawyer.

VOLNEY WILLEY, of Waterville, is authorized agent for Beeman's Universal Potate Baker for Lamoille, Caledonia and Orleans Counties.

GEN. DYER, Chief of Ordnance, in his annual report, just submitted, advises the sale of the United States arsenal at Vergennes.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT CAMBRIDGE.— We learn from the Newdealer that on Sunday, the 8th inst., three little boys of Hartson Perry, of Cambridge, went out to dig for a trap which they had set for a skunk. The ground caved in, burying the oldest boy—13 years of age —and a dog. Before the boy could be extinguished, life was extinct. The dog which was further in the ground at the time of the cave, was found alive.

ALEXANDER FISHER, of Fairfield, has sold the bull calf Ottawa, and the heifer Lily—thorough-bred Ayrshires—to Lyman Hunt, of North Fairlee.

THE BENNINGTON FIRE.—The Mount Anthony Hotel, recently burned at Bea-nington, with the furniture, cost in the vicinity of $50,000, on which there was an insurance of $26,800 from which amount must be deducted $1,000 on the barn, and $1,000 on furniture not burnt.

LUCIUS WALKER has resigned the post office at Wilmington, and Wells P.
Jones has been appointed in his stead.

THE WATERBURY HOUSE.—Messrs.
Bruce and Ladd have leased the Waterbury House, and are running it.

Gov. HALL'S HISTORY.—Ex-Governor Hall's history of the State is published and ready for delivery. It is dedicated to the Vermont Historical Society, of which Governor Hall was for six years President, and will be found to be a valuable contribution to historical literature. It treats of the discovery, exploration and settlement of Vermont, of the controversy with New York about the New Hampshire Grants; of the services rendered by the Green Mountain Boys during the Revolutionary war; of the obstacles met and overcome in organizing a State government, and in establishing and maintaining its independence. The biographical sketches in the appendix are of great interest and value, and the whole work is said to be creditable to Governor Hall and to the State.—Times.

WHAT MAKES YOUR HAIR SO BEAUTIFUL? MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.) Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

MONTREAL.—The News of Thursday says: Winter is upon us in right earnest.
The cold weather of the last few days was followed this morning by a heavy fall of snow, and it is coming down at a merry rate. The City Passenger Railway Company have put their sleighs on the track, wheeled vehicles generally are discarded, and the merry sound of the sleigh bells resound through every street.

On Monday last, Mr. B. Devlin and Mr. Wright of Montreal were admitted to practice in Courts of Law in Ontario.
Gen. O'Connor, Commander of the Forces in Jamaica, passed through this city on Wednesday, on his way to Quebec, where he will be the guest of Chief Justice Meredith. During the insurrection in Jamaica Gen. O'Connor acted with courage and decision.

How Not to Do It.—The following, which we find in the Argus, is as applicable to St. Albans as Montpelier:

If you wish to keep a town from thriving, don't put up any more buildings than you can conveniently occupy yourself. If you should accidentally have an empty dwelling, and any one wants to rent it, ask him about it re-times the actual value of it. Demand a Shylock price for every spot of ground God has given you stewardship over.
Turn a cold shoulder to every mechanic or business man seeking a home among you. Look at every new corner with a scowl. Run down the work of every new workman. Go abroad for wages rather than trade with those who do business in your midst. Fail to advertise, or in any other way supply your papers, so that people abroad may not know whether any business is going on in your town or not. Wrap yourselves up in a coat of impervious self-liness. There is no more effectual way to retard the growth of a town than actions like those enumerated. Montpelier has several citizens whom these things will fit. We trust they will put them on, see themselves as others see them, and then reform.

Legislature of Vermont—1868.

THURSDAY, NOV. 19.

SENATE.

Mr. Canfield called up H. 6, (Bennington and Rutland Railroad extension to West Rutland,) remarking that it was a bill which had been before the Legislature nearly the whole session and was one of importance.

Considerable discussion was had, but without coming to a vote on the bill the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

From Committee on ways and means, in favor of H. 138, relating to the Normal schools of the State, with amendments, appropriating $1500—$500 to each school—which was agreed to.

The passage of the bill was then favored by Mr. Mead, of Randolph, Mr.
Proctor, of Rutland, Mr. Dunn, of Fairfax, Mr. Brigham, of Hyde Park, Mr.
Hall, of Groton, Mr. Converse, of Woodstock, Mr. Christie, of Johnson; opposed by Mr. Wheeler, of Pawlet; Third reading ordered.

Mr. Hubbard, of Concord, moved that the rule requiring the engrossment of bills be suspended for the remainder of the session; agreed to.

From select Committee on the formation of a new county, by a bill without the expression of an opinion thereon.
[The bill appoints T. E. Wales, of Burlington, E. N. Briggs, of Brandon, and L. A. Dunn, of Fairfax, commissioners, to hear and consider the application of the petitioners, and report to the next Legislature.] The third reading was refused, after being favored by Mr. Grover, of Wells, Mr. Wentworth, of Chester, Mr. Proctor, of Rutland; opposed by Mr. Wheeler, of Rochester, Mr. Converse, of Woodstock, Mr. Hinkley, of Chelsea, Mr. Plimpton, of Newfane, Mr.
Fisher, of Westminster.

Can it be possible that over Five Million Bottles of Plantation Bitters have been sold during the past year? It is almost incredible, nevertheless it is absolutely true, and is the most convincing proof of their wonderful medicinal and health-restoring qualities. Every family should be supplied with these Bitters, at whatever cost or trouble it may be to obtain them. Be careful that you get the genuine, and that you are not imposed upon by a spurious article.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, To-matos, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

Have you a Cough, Cold pain in the Chest, or Bronchitis? In fact, have you the premonitory symptoms of the "insatiable archer," Consumption? If so, know that relief is within your reach in the shape of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which in many cases where hope had fled, has snatched the victim from the yawning grave.

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil cures headache, and all kinds of pain. Every family should keep it in the house, to use for sudden sickness, like colic, cholera morbus, pleurisy, cramps, fits, &c. "It works like a charm." Sold by druggists, merchants and grocers.

"'Tis the penalty of nature that all must fade and wither." The first inroad upon our personal charms is generally denoted by the hair, and in most cases prematurely. Let all who would preserve their natural capillary adornments make haste to apply that never-failing potency, "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorer."—Hartford Courant.
